

Thompson about the Middle of February. I think the people here are prepared for another address. I hear of no special or formal opposition. I have done what I could to circulate different abolition papers in

Last week I addressed the Great Falls Society - Large audience - The impression good - added to the society fifty -

You may expect to hear from me again in two or three weeks. I have yet received no box of pamphlets &c. We have here some strong abolitionists.

Dear Brother Phelps I have for some time been wishing to write you. I received your friendly letter with much satisfaction. I regretted that I could not be at Boston during the recent convention. But I have seen the report of the New E. Spectator also the last Liberator in regard to the doings of the Convention. I think that they have pursued a course which must result very much to their disadvantage & very much to the advancement of true abolition principles. I think now that our principle aim should be to go ahead & endeavor to convince all men that we mean something.

I am now anxious to learn what you have done at the Anniversary meeting.

Don't is now settling in this place. I think we shall be thankful for you & Mr.
